

Clark County School District (CCSD) Regulation 5111.1 requires a parent/guardian to provide proof of residence to enroll their child in school. The parent/guardian who is unable to provide a lease, mortgage, or utility bill in the parent/guardian’s name must complete this form.

Read and initial the statements below to affirm you agree to the following conditions:

- You and your family are living at this residence on a full-time basis.
This request is not made principally for the purpose of attending a school in which you are not zoned.
A CCSD attendance officer will conduct a visit to verify full-time residency at this address. If it is discovered that the information provided is false or untrue, your child will be unenrolled from the school and be required to attend their assigned zone school.
Secondary students attending on Shared Housing are ineligible for athletic participation. (Eligibility may occur through NIAA hardship)
The Shared Housing Verification Request Form must be completed each year.
